His Excellency
Dwight D. Eisenhower
President, United States
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President,

In connection with my memorandum of March 29, 1954, I would like to add that, according to my observations and the reports of the press, the situation is rapidly deteriorating in the Middle East and becoming more tense daily.

I respectfully submit, therefore, that immediate steps should be taken to forestall any warlike acts on the part of King Saud and Egypt. The plan of the Soviet agents and of former Nazis now in Arab countries to again plunge the world into war, a war not only of conquest but of declared annihilation and total destruction, should not be allowed to be actualized. No arms or other aid should be supplied by the United States to any Arab country guilty of such warlike acts until definite assurances have been provided by them for a permanent peace.

Sincerely yours,

Mirrer Yeshiva Central Institute
